THE MARITIME SAFETY COMMITTEE, RECALLING Article 28(b) of the Convention on the International Maritime Organization concerning the functions of the Committee, RECALLING FURTHER the relevant provis ions of the Intern ational Convention on Tonnage Measurement of Ships, 1969, RECALLING ALSO circular TM.5/Circ.4 on Pr ovisional formula to calculate areduced gross tonnage of open-top containerships, wher eby the Committee, being concerned with the economic disadvantages caused by the use of greater gross tonna ge in comparison with gross tonnage of conventional containe rships for the assessment of fees, agreed to recommend areduced gross tonnage for open-top containers