NOTING that UNCLOS, the SOLAS Convention, chapter V and the SAR Convention set the framework for assistance to persons in distress at sea, AGREEING ON the necessity of ensuring free and unhindered navigation, BEARING IN MIND the necessity of ensuring safe working conditions for all seafarers, BEARING ALSO IN MIND that persons in distress at sea are under considerable risk and stress,
BEARING FURTHER IN MIND that having on boa rd survivors might inadvertently pose significant risks to the safety of ships rendering assistance, their crews, passengers and themselves,
RECOGNIZING the possible impact on seafarers' physical and mental well-being, RECOGNIZING ALSO the need for ships to be enabled to safely disembark survivors as soon as possible,
STRESSING that a rescue operation is not completed until the survivors are disembarked in a place of safety,
RECOGNIZING that the scope of this resolution is limited to promoting the safety of life at sea

a place of safety,
RECOGNIZING that the scope of this resolution is limited to promoting the safety of life at sea
STRESSING that this resolution is without prejudice to other obligations of States, including under human rights law and refugee law, BEING DEEPLY CONCERNED by incidents where ships were not given access to disembark survivors taken on board in a distress situation as soon as reasonably practicable and with minimum further deviation from the ships' intended voyage, RECOGNIZING the necessity to strengthen the cooperation between Member States according to the SAR Convention, REITERATING the Organization's determination to enhance safety of life at sea,
