ASSEMBLY - 3rd session
Agenda item 12

ADOPTION OF THE REPORTS OF THE MARITIME SAFETY COMMITTEE

RESOLUTION A.54(III)
adopted on 24 October 1963

THE ASSEMBLY,

TAKING NOTE of Article 16 of the Convention concerning the functions of the Assembly,

NOTING FURTHER Article 29 of the Convention concerning the duties of the Maritime Safety Committee,

NOTING IN ADDITION Article 30(b) of the Convention providing that the Maritime Safety Committee shall report to the Assembly on its work since the previous regular session of the Assembly,

NOTING ALSO that, under Article 22 of the Convention, the Council has considered the Reports of the Maritime Safety Committee at its eighth and ninth sessions and transmitted them to the Assembly,

NOTING ALSO that the Council at its eighth session decided to recommend to the Assembly that paragraph 59(c) of the Committee's main Report (relating to choice of operational frequencies for emergency position-indicating radio beacons) should be referred back to the Committee,

HAVING CONSIDERED the Reports of the Maritime Safety Committee,

A.III/Res.54

RECALLING that the Assembly, at this session, has adopted Resolutions concerning:

(a) the treatment of shelter-deck and other "open" spaces,

(b) stability information for ships carrying grain,

(c) the marking of oceanographic stations,

(d) the Red Sea lights,

(e) prevention of pollution of the sea by oil,

(f) the proposed international conference on load-lines,

(g) stability of fishing vessels,

which concern certain items of the work of the Maritime Safety Committee mentioned in these Reports,

DECIDES

(1) to approve the Reports of the Maritime Safety Committee and, in particular, the work carried out and the future programme of work;

(2) to refer back to the Committee for examination the matter dealt with in paragraph 59(c) (choice of operational frequencies for emergency position-indicating radio beacons) of the Committee's main Report.
