RESOLUTION MSC.564(108)

(adopted on 23 May 2024)

SECURITY SITUATION IN THE RED SEA AND GULF OF ADEN RESULTING FROM

HOUTHI ATTACKS ON COMMERCIAL SHIPS AND SEAFARERS

THE MARITIME SAFETY COMMITTEE,

RECALLING the purposes of the International Maritime Organization (IMO) as set forth in Article 1 of the Convention, and the mission in the Strategic Plan of IMO to promote safe, secure, environmentally sound, efficient, and sustainable shipping through cooperation, REAFFIRMING its commitment to the principles enshrined in the United Nations Charter, the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS), and all relevant international conventions and agreements related to maritime safety, security and environmental protection,

conventions and agreements related to maritime safety, security and environmental protection,

RECALLING that United Nations Security Council resolution 2722 underscores support for the navigational rights and freedoms of vessels in the Red Sea, condemns Houthi attacks on commercial ships, demands the Houthis immediately cease such attacks and release the M/V Galaxy Leader and its crew that were seized by the Houthis on 19 November 2023,

RECALLING ALSO the statement of the IMO Secretary -General on 11 January 2024 supporting United Nations Security Council resolution 2722 affirming that the exercise of navigational rights and freedom by merchant vessels, in accordance with international law, must be respected,

NOTING that the illegal and unjustifiable attacks by the Houthis on ships transiting the Red

Sea and the Gulf of Aden have killed innocent seafarers and continue to jeopardize the lives and safety of seafarers,

and safety of seafarers,

NOTING ALSO that, despite repeated warnings from the international community, the Houthis have carried out around 50 dangerous and destabilizing maritime attacks since 19 November 2023,

HIGHLIGHTING that the Houthis' reckless actions are putting innocent lives at risk, disrupting the delivery of urgently needed humanitarian aid to those who need it most, increasing the cost of this humanitarian assistance, and destabilizing the region,

HIGHLIGHTING ALSO that the Houthis' reckless actions pose a direct threat to the freedom of navigation in one of the world's most critical waterways, are causing major disruptions to regional and global trade, and are impeding the movement of critical food, fuel, huma nitarian assistance, and other essential goods throughout the world,

NOTING that the 25 seafarers who make up the crew of the M/V Galaxy Leader who have

assistance, and other essential goods throughout the world,

NOTING that the 25 seafarers who make up the crew of the M/V Galaxy Leader who have been held captive by the Houthis since 19 November 2023 are innocent victims of the ongoing aggression against world shipping, and their plight is a major concern as the merchant shipping community continues to come under attack,

RECALLING the statement of international industry bodies on 19 February 2024 calling on the Houthis to release the crew of the M/V Galaxy Leader,

RESOLUTION MSC.564(108) (adopted on 23 May 2024)

RECALLING ALSO the statements of the IMO Secretary -General on numerous occasions, urging for the immediate release of the M/V Galaxy Leader and its crew,
