should be inserted in the appropriate columns and the required particulars should be rec orded chronologically in the blank spaces.

Each completed operation should be signed for and dated by the officer or officers in ch arge.

The master of the ship should sign each completed page.

The use of an electronic record book to record activities is an alternative method to a hard copy record book.

Electronic recording and reporting should be encouraged as it may have many benefits and may allow ships to utilize their technology to reduce administrative burdens and contrib ute to onboard environmental initiatives, e.g.

reduction of paper use.

In case electronic recording is to be used, resolution MEPC.312(74) may be used for guid ance.
